

MARINE DURBAN
Avignon - France

MARINE DURBAN , born in Avignon in 1988, has been a professional painter for 10 years. She creates astonishing paintings, both full of colour and joyful but profound using techniques borrowed from Abstract Expressionism and Action painting. ...

A personal touch: she discreetly integrates calligraphic signs and confusing lines tattooed on the canvas in filigree. A vestige of her mystical, gothic teenage years. A wink to the second degree in fact.

Marine exhibited her work under the patronage of the French Ministry of Culture in Avignon, at the Maison du Japon under the patronage of the Institut de France in Paris, at the Institut du Monde Arabe in Paris. She also has numerous solo exhibitions in Paris, Zurich, London, Brussels, Ibiza and Berlin. In addition to Art Fair Paris 2014 and 2015 and SH Contemporary Shanghai 2016, Luxembourg ARTWEEK 2018 and 2019.

She is also commissioned by the most important French decorators such as Alberto Pinto, Frédéric Méchiche, Pierre-Yves Rochon

Her work can be found with many collectors around the world but also in many trendy places in Europe: such as Mekkw in Amsterdam, Be There, the Kong, and Andy Wahloo in Paris, Ize Swift and the Brewdog in London, the Paradiso and the Antic Teatre in Barcelona ...
